

Newsletter

We are excited to bring you the first ever edition of the ALISS newsletter. This space is all about keeping you updated on the work we are doing, sharing recent developments, and giving you tips about how to best use ALISS.

We will be sending these updates a few times a year to keep you informed and connected to our mission of making information about health and wellbeing resources easy to find.

Visit ALISS here

Case study: ALISS & Glasgow Community Food Network

Our Engagement Officer Amber, spoke with Mark, Sarah, and Rebecca from Glasgow Community Food Network (GCFN). ALISS and GCFN have been working together to develop a local food map showing free or low-cost community food services in Glasgow. Want to find out how the map has helped GCFN with their aim to make fresh food more accessible and available? Watch the video here!

Case study: ALISS in Wowland

Something special unfolds at Glasgow's Byres Community Hub once a month. The Wowers – the spirited women of Weekday Wow Factor – join Hub volunteers for a tea, a chat, and a drop-in session focused on community connections. This welcoming space offers more than refreshments: it is a place for support, rediscovery, and connection. Click here to read the full story!

Upcoming events

ALISS is all about connecting with communities! That is why we are excited to share these upcoming events where you can find the ALISS team. Whether you are curious about what we do, want to see how ALISS can support your work, or just fancy a chat, drop by our stand. Here is where we will be:

Scotland's Museums and Galleries Strategy Symposium

📍 Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, and online

📅 Wednesday 26th February

Trellis Scotland Annual Conference

📍 The Bield at Blackruthven, Perth

📅 Friday 14th March

Children in Scotland Annual Conference

📍 DoubleTree by Hilton, Glasgow

📅 Wednesday 28th and Thursday 29th May

Find us on Facebook!

Did you know that ALISS has its own Facebook page? Give us a follow or a like if you want to keep up with all the latest news, events and updates from ALISS.

Need more help with using ALISS? Try the ALISS Help Centre.

If you would like to speak to a member of our team, please contact us at hello@aliss.org. We are happy to help!

Best wishes,

The ALISS Team

Visit us

Scottish Government
Riaghaltas na h-Alba
gov.scot